1996 DRILLING PROGRAM

DOCKER TOWNSHIP

NELSON GRANITE

Previous Work

Rock has been quarried from this deposit since 1948 by various companies. Today Nelson Granite is the sole owner and quarry operator. Previous work carried out by Nelson Granite consisted of power stripping over numerous locations on this claim group since 1983. Channeling and other preparatory work to quarrying was also carried out at some locations.

Quarry production has taken place at three locations on the property. The Rawlins-GQI quarry at the southwest side of Aaron Lake and Nelson Granite's quarry site south of Highway 17 are currently not producing. The north quarry west of Aaron Lake is the site of current stone production.

Purpose of this program

The purpose of this drilling program was to confirm that quarryable granite continued to depth and that the thickness of the granite sheets was similar to that encountered near surface.

Method

Four 40 foot deep diamond drill holes were put down. Three were drilled at the north or Aaron Lake quarry site and one was drilled near the old Rawlins - GQI quarry site. The drilling was carefully monitored by watching water pressure changes and noting the depth at which the drillers stripped the drill bit. All breaks in the core were carefully checked to determine their cause ie. mechanical breaks, jointing, etc. All core was sawn in half, book matched and boxed.

Results

The results of the drilling confirmed that quarryable granite continued to depth. Quality of stone and sheet thickness appears similar to the material found and quarried near surface.
