The survey was flown using an aircraft equipped with the MAGNETIC AND Aeromagnetic field data at survey altitude. The models for quantitative interpretation were developed by Fugro, S. 1998. The use of B-field data for ore prospecting in the Kidd-Munro Blake River Area of the northern part of Ontario and investors were involved in the fulfillment of the survey.