

Mining Lands Administration System Update

New Instructional Resources to Help You Navigate MLAS

Video Tutorials and Directives Provide
Detailed Step-by-Step Direction

Online Resources to Guide You in MLAS

We are pleased to be making available new tools to help you find your way around, and get your work done more easily through the Mining Lands Administration System (MLAS). We want MLAS to be among the best mining lands management systems in the world, and we want you to benefit from all of its features and functions.

Video Tutorials

A series of 11 video tutorials has been developed to help our mining lands clients navigate MLAS more effectively. These videos are posted on YouTube and available from the following links, showing you how to:

1. register as an existing legacy client
2. register as a new client
3. apply for a prospector's licence in MLAS
4. view or print a prospector's licence
5. register a mining claim
6. initiate the transfer of a mining claim
7. complete the transfer of a mining claim
8. confirm Surface Rights Owner \(SRO\) notification of claim registration
9. distribute approved credits
10. manage agents
11. submit a notice of claim abandonment

New MLAS Directives Now Online

In addition, six of seven Minister's Directives that also provide instruction on working in MLAS have been published on our website. These cover some of the subject matter that's in the video tutorials, but in much greater detail, including how to:

- get started
- obtain a prospector's licence
- register a mining claim
- manage your claims
- report assessment work and
- submit a plan or a permit application for early exploration activities

For registered users of MLAS, the Minister's Directives are also accessible by clicking on the "Reference Documents" link at the upper right corner of the home page in MLAS.

We're Also Just a Phone Call Away
